

Recruitment Funnel Analysis for McKenzie & Carter Consulting

Optimizing Hiring Efficiency, Source ROI & Candidate
Experience

By Faith Yakubu

Project Background

- McKenzie & Carter Consulting is a global consulting firm with 15,000+ employees.
- The company's Talent Acquisition (TA) team faced challenges including:
 - Long hiring cycles (Time-to-Hire).
 - High offer decline rates.
 - Unclear ROI from sourcing channels.
 - Candidate drop-offs after interviews.
- Objective: Improve recruitment funnel transparency and decision-making through analytics.

Objectives

- Audit the recruitment funnel for inefficiencies.
- Evaluate source effectiveness and ROI.
- Improve candidate experience and diversity inclusion.
- Provide strategic insights for better hiring outcomes.

How many people moved through each hiring step, and how many were finally hired?

Insights

- 9,800 applications received; 5,349 hires made. High retention through interview stages — strong initial screening process.
- Major drop-off at offer stage, suggesting potential candidate decline or negotiation challenges.
- Funnel narrowing indicates effective selection but possible inefficiencies in later stages.

Recommendations

- Improve Offer Conversion: Review compensation, speed of offer delivery, and communication with candidates.
- Optimize Technical Stages: Ensure fair assessment and timely feedback to avoid candidate fatigue.
- Strengthen Employer Branding: Maintain engagement and candidate experience throughout the recruitment process.

On average, how many days does it take to hire someone in each department, job, or by recruiter?

Avg Time to Hire by department, Job & Recruiter
department	Average Time to Hire
Analytics	17.55
Finance	17.44
HR	17.46
IT	17.58
Legal	17.54
Operations	17.51
Risk	17.60
Strategy	17.42
Total	17.51

Insights

- Overall average time to hire: 17.5 days – efficient recruitment timeline.
- Risk (17.6 days) and IT (17.58 days) show slightly longer hiring durations.
- Finance (17.44 days) and Strategy (17.42 days) lead in faster turnaround.
- Minimal variation across departments suggests consistent hiring practices.

Recommendations

- Reduce delays in longer processes — review technical or approval stages in Risk & IT.
- Share best practices from Finance and Strategy to maintain consistent speed.
- Monitor recruiter performance and automate communication for quicker decision-making.

Which hiring sources (like LinkedIn, job boards, referrals) give the best results for the money spent?

Insights

- Job Boards, Executive Search, and Referrals achieve the highest ROI (5.0) — strong talent sources.
- LinkedIn (4.9) and Campus Hiring (4.9) perform well but with slight room for improvement.
- Company Website (4.8) shows the lowest ROI, indicating lower candidate quality or engagement.
- Recommendations
- Focus investment on top-performing channels (Referrals, Job Boards, Executive Search).
- Optimize underperforming sources — strengthen employer branding on the company website.
- Track source effectiveness over time to align spending with best recruitment outcomes.

At which step do we lose the most candidates, and why are they rejected?

Insights

- Applicants account for the highest rejections — mainly due to other job offers or budget constraints.
- Hiring Managers reject candidates mostly for poor performance or inadequate skills.
- Recruiter rejections are minimal, indicating good initial screening.
- Cultural fit and qualification gaps remain recurring rejection themes.

Recommendations

- Improve offer competitiveness to reduce applicant withdrawals.
- Strengthen interview and evaluation training for hiring managers.
- Enhance job descriptions to attract well-matched candidates.
- Monitor rejection trends to identify recurring process gaps.

Does gender or ethnicity affect how far a candidate gets or whether they are hired?

Insights

- Balanced hiring across genders — Male, Female, and Non-Binary representation is nearly even.
- Female hires slightly lead in several ethnic categories, reflecting strong inclusion efforts.
- Ethnic diversity is broad, with all groups (Asian, Black, Hispanic, Mixed, Other, White) represented.
- No significant dominance by any group — signals equitable hiring outcomes.

Recommendations

- Sustain diversity initiatives through inclusive hiring and unbiased screening processes.
- Track DEI metrics quarterly to maintain balanced representation.
- Expand outreach to underrepresented demographics to strengthen equity.
- Promote diversity awareness among hiring managers through regular training.

Which recruiters or application sources give candidates the best experience?

Insights

- All recruiters have very similar average experience scores (6.9-7.2)
- Minimal variation in performance across the team
- Overall candidate experience is consistently positive but not exceptional

Recommendations

- Investigate why scores cluster in the 7/10 range rather than higher
- Share best practices from top performers (Rachel Allison, Nathan Soto - 7.2)
- Provide targeted coaching for lower performers (Troy Adams - 6.9)
- Review feedback to identify common pain points in the candidate experience

Recommendations

- Streamline hiring timelines — automate interview scheduling.
- Prioritize LinkedIn & Referrals for quality hires.
- Standardize candidate feedback loops.
- Train recruiters on engagement best practices.
- Continue DEI monitoring quarterly.
